
A VOYAGE IN TIME

LA TETERIA DEL CALIFA, VEJER

A collection of family photographs taken between 1970 and 2016 covering Morocco and the Middle East. The pictures of 3 generations (father, sons and grandchildren) detail a family dedicated to adventure and exploration. Additional photographs by Wilfred Thesiger.

Inspired by his own grandfather and father's travels across Africa, Charles Stuart spent half a lifetime travelling in the America's, Carribean and Arabia. His love of travel he passed on to his son James who in turn travels as much as possible with his two girls. These photos reflect a father and sons passion for places and people in North Africa and the Middle East.

Sir Wilfred Patrick Thesiger (b. Addis Ababa 3 June 1910 - 24 August 2003), was an English explorer and travel writer. Thesiger's travel books include Arabian Sands (1959), on his foot and camel crossing of the Empty Quarter of the Arabian Peninsula, and The Marsh Arabs (1964), on his time living in the marshes of Iraq with the Marsh Arabs. A spirited adventurer, writer and acclaimed photographer he donated his collection of 38,000 photographs to the Pitt Rivers Museum, Oxford from where these prints were purchased for the Califa collection.
